Foreword

*"Let us go hand in hand.
Not one before the other."*

Hands, led by the heart and mind, may mold a character or a world. Many hands, the tools of success, have worked together to accomplish desired goals. One by one, these goals were met, and one by one, they had to be mastered.

You, the Senior Class of 1956, as the leaders of tomorrow, now face new goals. In your hands lies the responsibility of molding and building the future.

*"Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do,
Do with thy might."*

Shirley Vaught, Susan Ruff and Diane Devilbiss, members of the Fawn editorial staff, on their way to class after attending a yearbook parley.

Dedication

ELDON S. WEBB

We, the class of 1956, dedicate this edition of THE FAWN to our principal and friend, Eldon S. Webb, who has guided us during the four years that Kenard-Dale has been growing and improving and who has worked in our community during the past eleven years as a teacher, administrator, church and civic leader.

Through his tireless efforts and sacrificial service, Mr. Webb has contributed to the progress of our school. He has always been willing to lend a helping hand and to offer assistance wherever it has been needed.

By dedicating this book to Mr. Webb, we hope to express our gratitude and appreciation for the cooperation he has given us during the four years of our high school careers.

Administration

Congratulations upon your graduation!

Although you have reached your goal and made your dreams come true, new spheres of endeavor lie ahead. You have come to the end of one short journey, or rather you have stopped to rest awhile in a bright spot, ere you continue the one long journey we all must make. Your success in life will depend upon your readiness and ability to do the work the world has for you to do. It is my sincere wish that you may face forward with unfaltering courage and a faith which will surmount every impending obstacle.

To this end, I wish you success and happiness in the plans you cherish most.

W. G. Gallagher
Supervising Principal

Dear Seniors:

Each year as graduation nears, I observe among the seniors, a happiness and a satisfaction that comes with the completion of a task well done. I share with you in your rejoicing at this time, and yet, I do so with some regret.

You have attended Kennard-Dale High School four years, and during this time, you have worked cooperatively with the teachers and me. Not only have you completed the assignments required of the teachers, but upon your own initiative you have contributed of your own time, effort, and enthusiasm toward making Kennard-Dale an alma mater of which you can be justly proud. Then, too, through four years of association I have learned to know many of you well. Therefore, it is with a note of sadness that I think of your graduating and leaving Kennard-Dale.

Thomas Henry Huxley said, "The rung of a ladder was never meant to rest upon, but only to hold a man's foot long enough to enable him to put the other somewhat higher." Your graduation is only a rung in this ladder. Don't rest upon your present accomplishment when you leave, but put the knowledge that you have gained at Kennard-Dale to tasks that are challenging, and success will be yours.

Administrative Assistant

"They Gave Him a Co-Ed"

A confused country boy comes to Cold Canyon College and falls in love with the dean's secretary during the junior play, "They Gave Him a Co-d."

"Gary Blaine" (Donald Devilbiss) and "Roland Graves" (Eugene Dellinger) seem to disagree about something. That's "Ione Babson" (Janet Wilson) in the background.

Everything ends happily as "Dean Brown" (Tom Norris) and "Gloria Manson" (Diane Devilbiss) discover they were meant for each other.

... Our Amateur Thespians

"Hercules" (Thomas Norris), and "Wilbur" (Duane Ebaugh) go sleuthing in "Finders Creepers," the senior play, held November 18, 1955.

"Mr. Quigley" (Stanley Snodgrass) finds his post mortem presence is somewhat disturbing.

WILLIAM SAYLOR

"THE FAWN" is the culmination of many hours and ideas put forth by the staff and advisers. The staff has attempted to capture in pictures many of the activities, life, people, and pleasant associations that are connected with Kennard Dale.

We, the staff of the '56 FAWN, wish to show our appreciation by giving sincere thanks to all who helped to make the 1956 FAWN possible, particularly the following:

To Mr. Gallagher, Mr. Webb, and the members of the faculty who cooperated with us in many ways; especially, by excusing members of the staff from classes to work on our yearbook.

To Mr. Hoke, who gave freely of his time and his experience to our staff in compiling this book.

To Mrs. Sheffer, who spent many hours reading copy and assisting.

To Richard Hyson, William Amspacher, Glenwood Huson, Larry Enfield, Paul Hess, Eugene Delinger and Donald Devilbiss who without their assistance we would not have any pictures.

To Mr. Stauffer, for taking many of the photos and supervising the dark room work.

To the patrons, who gave us their confidence. We suggest that you patronize them.

To Loring Studio, 146 East Market Street, York, Pennsylvania, who generously furnished about 50 glossy prints of groups as well as the glossy prints of seniors and faculty. In addition, they supplied us with many packs of film paper and bulbs. We greatly appreciate all the assistance they extended us.

To H. G. Roebuck and Son, Inc., Baltimore, Md., the printers of our FAWN, for many suggestions given to assist us in our compilation.

To the many others who by their suggestions and helpful criticisms aided us in our task.

Sincere thanks,

THE STAFF OF 1956 FAWN

We are pleased to have been of service to these talented students
